 - Historical Period: Early Pandya Dynasty era (c. 8th–9th Century CE).
 - Sovereign & Scholarly Contemporaries: Vallabhadeva (Pandya King of Madurai), Andal (His foster daughter and supreme saint).

Section 2: Complete Life History & Miracles

2.1 Chronological Life Timeline

- Devotional Birth & Floral Kainkaryam: Born into a pious Mukundacharya Brahmin lineage at Srivilliputhur, dedicating his life to cultivating a flower garden (Nandavanam) for Lord Vatapatrasayi → Divine Command: Lord Vatapatrasayi commanding him in a dream to go to the royal court of Pandya King Vallabhadeva in Madurai → The Royal Scholarly Debate (Vada): Establishing Narayana's supreme absolute causality (Parathvam) using scripture without formal scholarly training, causing the royal purse (Kizhi) to bend down to him automatically → Divine Procession & Vision: Riding the royal elephant in grand honor and receiving direct vision (Prathyaksha Anubhava) of Sriman Narayana in the sky with Sri, Bhu, and Nila Devi → Outpouring of Thirupallandu: Fearing for the Lord's safety against the evil eye, singing Thirupallandu to bless God Himself → Fatherhood of Andal: Discovering Andal under a Tulasi plant, raising her in Bhakti, and giving her in divine marriage to Lord Ranganatha → Attainment of Paramapadam: Absorbing into the divine service of Garuda in Paramapadam.

2.2 Deep Biographical Narrative

- Early Years & Spiritual Awakening: Vishnuchittan was born at Srivilliputhur to Mukundacharya and Padmavalli. Desiring no intellectual preeminence or royal favors, he chose the humblest physical service (Kainkaryam): maintaining a lush flower garden (Nandavanam) to weave daily flower garlands for the deity Lord Vatapatrasayi. He believed that physical service offered with a pure heart was the highest path of surrender.
- Core Seva / Kainkaryam: Nandavana Kainkaryam (Garland weaving) and Mangalasasanam (protective devotional blessing). His spiritual outlook was completely defined by maternal affection (Vatsalya Bhava), viewing the Supreme Lord not as an intimidating, awe-inspiring deity, but as a vulnerable child who required protection.
- Miracles & Historical Events:
 1. The Victory at the Madurai Court: King Vallabhadeva of Madurai sought to determine the ultimate truth (Paratattva) to attain liberation. Lord Vatapatrasayi appeared in Vishnuchittan's dream, ordering him to participate in the court debate. Though Vishnuchittan protested his lack of formal Vedantic scholarship, the Lord assured him guidance. Entering the royal assembly, divine wisdom flowed through him effortlessly. He quoted Vedic and Smriti texts, conclusively establishing Sriman Narayana as the Supreme Brahman. The monetary reward bag (Kizhi) hung high on a pillar miraculously bent down and fell into his hands.
 2. Singing Thirupallandu (Blessing the Lord): Overjoyed by Vishnuchittan's victory, King Vallabhadeva seated him upon the royal elephant in a grand victory procession through Madurai. Moved by His devotee's glory, Lord Narayana appeared in the sky, riding Garuda accompanied by His consorts. Seeing the transcendent beauty of the Lord exposed to the gaze of thousands of ordinary mortals, Vishnuchittan was seized by intense maternal fear (Vatsalya). Fearing that the evil eye (Drishti) of the crowd would harm the Lord, he grabbed the bells hanging from the elephant's neck and beat them as cymbals, singing Thirupallandu—wishing long life, protection, and eternal glory to God Himself for thousands of years (Pallandu Pallandu).
 3. Parenting Andal: Vishnuchittan discovered the infant Andal beneath a Tulasi plant in his garden. He raised her with total devotion, nurturing her love for Lord Krishna. When he discovered she had been secretly wearing the flower garlands intended for the Lord before offering them to the temple, he was initially horrified. However, Lord Vatapatrasayi appeared in a dream, declaring that He preferred only the garlands already worn and blessed by Andal (Kothai).
- Guru-Disciple Dynamics: Preceptor and biological foster father to Andal. He passed on the entire emotional legacy of Vatsalya and Krishna Leela Anubhava to her.
- Attainment of Paramapadam: Having completed his earthly duties and witnessed

Andal's union with Lord Ranganatha at Srirangam, Vishnuchittan returned to Srivilliputhur and eventually entered the eternal abode of Paramapadam to resume his celestial identity as Garuda.

💡 Sthala Puranam & Legend Highlight: The Inversion of Devotion in Thirupallandu

In standard religious paradigms, mortals ask God for protection and long life. In Periyalwar's philosophy, the devotee's love is so intense that he forgets his own finite, helpless nature and attempts to protect the omnipotent Supreme Being from harm. This unique inversion—wishing Pallandu (long life) to God—is why he earned the supreme title Periyalwar ("The Elder/Great Azhwar").

Section 3: Literary, Preservation & Philosophical Contributions

- Complete List of Works:
 - Thirupallandu (12 Pasurams) – The universal opening invocation sung before all Sri Vaishnava scripture and temple recitations.
 - Periyalwar Thirumozhi (461 Pasurams) – Chronicling the birth, childhood, toddler mischief, and divine feats of Lord Krishna through maternal eyes.
- Quantified Output: 473 Pasurams total.
- Associated Divya Desams (Mangalasasanam): Srivilliputhur, Thirukoodal (Madurai), Thiruvengadam (Tirupati), Thirukudanthai, Sri Rangam, Thiruvellarai, Mathura, Gokulam, Ayodhya.
- Sampradaya Defense & Preservation: Formulated the primary liturgy of Sri Vaishnava ritual worship. Thirupallandu acts as the indispensable protective armor (Kavacham) recited at the start and end of all Prabandha chants.
- Predominant Bhakti Bhava & Philosophical Core: Vatsalya Bhava (Parental love toward God). His core doctrine asserts that love expressed as protective care toward God eradicates all residual ego (Ahamkara) and seals the bond of Prapatti.

Section 4: Representative Verses & Theological Breakdown

Verse 1: Thirupallandu, Pasuram 1 (Pallandu Pallandu)

Text Layer	Content
Original Script (Tamil)	பல்லாண்டு பல்லாண்டு பல்லாயிரத்தாண்டு பலகோடி நூறாயிரம் மல்லாண்ட திண்தோள் மணிவண்ணா ! உன் சேவடி செவ்வி திருக்காப்பு
Roman Transliteration	Pallandu pallandu pallayirattthandu

	Pala kodi nurayiram Mallanda thinthol manivanna! Un Sevadi sevvu thirukappu
Literal Word-by-Word Meaning	Pallandu: Many years; Pallandu: many years; Pallayirathandu: many thousands of years; Pala kodi nurayiram: many hundreds of thousands of crores of years; Mallanda: who subdued/vanquished the mighty wrestlers (in Kamsa's arena); Thinthol: possessing powerful shoulders; Manivanna: Oh Lord with the radiant hue of a blue sapphire; Un: Your; Sevadi: reddish divine lotus feet; Sevvi: beauty/freshness; Thirukappu: may it be safely protected!

Exhaustive Theological & Philosophical Commentary:

1. Esoteric Meaning (Swaroop Jnanam): Periyalwar gazes upon the powerful, sapphire-hued shoulders (Manivanna) of Lord Narayana who defeated the demon wrestlers. Yet, instead of relying on that strength for his own protection, he worries that the exposure of the Lord's tender, reddish lotus feet (Sevadi) to human eyes will cause harm. He therefore invokes protective blessings (Thirukappu) over God's own body for infinite cosmic eras.
2. Viśiṣṭādvaita Alignment: Establishes Svarupa-Jnana through the lens of pure love. In Viśiṣṭādvaita, the ultimate boundary of devotion is reached when the soul's focus shifts completely away from its own salvation (Sva-Rakshana) to the protection and pleasure of the Supreme Lord (Para-Gatha-Kapata/Seshin).
3. Commentarial Insights: Periyavachan Pillai in his commentary writes that this verse represents the essence of all Vedas. The word Thirukappu (divine protection) is an expression of deep Anuraga (devotional affection). It proves that when devotion matures fully, awe and fear of God's majesty (Aishwarya) disappear, leaving only protective intimacy (Saulabhya-Anubhava).

Section 5: Visuals & Archival Resources

5.1 Iconography & Shrine Visual Description

- Physical Posture (Asana): Seated or standing in a humble posture holding brass cymbals (Thalam) used to sing Thirupallandu.
- Hand Gestures (Mudras): Hands beating cymbals together at chest level in rhythm, or held in Anjali Mudra.

- Garments & Embellishments: Attired in traditional Brahmin priest robes, wearing prominent Urdhva Pundra (tilak) marks on twelve body locations, adorned with fresh Tulasi garlands and lotus seed beads.
- Avathara Sthalam Idol Description: At Srivilliputhur, Periyalwar's Moolavar shrine portrays him next to Andal and Vatapatrasayi, capturing his eternal role as the father of Andal and the singer of protective blessings.

2. ANDAL

(Kothai, Nachiyar, Chudikuduttha Sudarkodi, Goda Devi, Ranganatha Nayaki)

Section 1: Identification & Incarnation Details

- Full Name & Titles: Andal, Kothai (Garland of verses/flowers), Nachiyar, Chudikuduttha Sudarkodi (The luminous vine who offered garlands after wearing them), Goda Devi, Ranganatha Nayaki, Sri Goda Natchiyar.
- Incarnation Metadata:
 - Tamil Month (Maasam): Aadi (Ashadha)
 - Birth Star (Nakshatram): Pooram (Purva Phalguni)
 - Tithi & Paksham: Early Medieval Era / Dvapara transition; Sukla Paksha Chaturthi.
- Geographic Origins:
 - Historic Birthplace Name: Srivilliputhur (Tulasi Nandavanam)
 - Current District & State: Virudhunagar District, Tamil Nadu.
 - Associated Divya Desam / Temple: Srivilliputhur Andal Temple & Srirangam Sri Ranganathaswamy Temple.
- Divine Lineage & Era:
 - Divine Amsam: Bhū Devi (Mother Earth / Divine Consort of Sriman Narayana).
 - Historical Period: c. 8th–9th Century CE.
 - Sovereign & Scholarly Contemporaries: Periyalwar (Her foster father), Lord Ranganatha (Her divine Husband).

Section 2: Complete Life History & Miracles

2.1 Chronological Life Timeline

- Ayoni Discovery: Discovered as an infant beneath a Tulasi plant in Periyalwar's garden at Srivilliputhur → Secret Garland Offering (Chudikuduttha Vaibhavam): Daily wearing the flower garland intended for Lord Vatapatrasayi to inspect her suitability for Him before putting it back → Revelation of Her Identity: Lord Vatapatrasayi refusing fresh garlands and insisting on receiving only the garland previously worn by Andal → Margazhi Nonbu & Thiruppavai Composition: Leading the maidens of Srivilliputhur in the sacred winter vow (Pavai Nonbu) to attain Lord Krishna → Dream Marriage (Varanam Aayiram): Expressing intense longing and composing Nachiyar Thirumozhi → Journey to Srirangam & Divine Union: Arriving at Srirangam in royal bridal procession and stepping onto the serpent bed to merge physically into the deity of Lord Ranganatha.

2.2 Deep Biographical Narrative

- Early Years & Spiritual Awakening: Andal manifested spontaneously (Ayoni Sambhava) as an infant in the flower garden maintained by Periyalwar in Srivilliputhur. Periyalwar named her Kothai ("String of Flowers" or "Beautiful Maiden"). Raised in an environment echoing with tales of Lord Krishna's divine sports (Leelas), Kothai developed an exclusive, romantic longing for Sriman Narayana. From early childhood, she resolved that she would never marry a mortal human being (Manidharukku Enru Pechuppadil Vaazhken).
- Core Seva / Kainkaryam: Bridal Surrender / Nayaki Bhava (Reaching God through love). Her service was offering garlands of both fresh flowers and immortal poetry to the Lord.
- Miracles & Historical Events:
 1. Chudikuduttha Sudarkodi: Every morning, while Periyalwar was away gathering flowers, young Kothai would take the freshly woven garland meant for Lord Vatapatrasayi, wear it around her own neck, admire her reflection in a well, and then place it neatly back in the basket. She did this not out of disrespect, but to check whether her beauty was worthy of her chosen Lord. One day, Periyalwar caught her in the act. Distressed that the garland was contaminated by human use (Echil), he prepared a fresh garland for the deity. That night, Lord Vatapatrasayi appeared in Periyalwar's dream and rejected the fresh garland, declaring: "I find joy only in the garlands fragrant with Kothai's devotion." From that day, she was venerated as Chudikuduttha Sudarkodi.
 2. The Margazhi Pavai Nonbu: During the sacred month of Margazhi, Andal performed the ancient Pavai vow, assuming the persona of a Gopi in Vrindavan. She woke her companion maidens at dawn, went to the river to bathe, and composed thirty immortal verses—the Thiruppavai—praying for the ultimate spiritual gift: eternal, uninterrupted service (Kainkaryam) at the feet of Krishna.
 3. The Divine Wedding at Srirangam: As Andal reached marriageable age, her longing for Lord Ranganatha of Srirangam became unbearable. Lord Ranganatha appeared to the priests of Srirangam in a dream, commanding them to bring Andal to Srirangam in a royal palanquin as His bride. When the bridal procession arrived at the sanctum of Srirangam, Andal stepped onto the serpent bed of Adishesha, embraced the lotus feet of Lord Ranganatha, and merged completely into His divine icon before the eyes of her father and thousands of devotees.
- Guru-Disciple Dynamics: Andal accepted her foster father, Periyalwar, as her Acharya, learning the secrets of Vedantic philosophy and Krishna Bhakti from him.
- Attainment of Paramapadam: Merged physically into the icon of Lord Ranganatha at Srirangam at a young age, attaining eternal union with her Divine Husband.

Sthala Puranam & Legend Highlight: Thiruppavai & Bhu Devi's Incarnation

Andal is recognized as the direct avatar of Bhu Devi (Mother Earth). Legend states that Bhu Devi asked Lord Varaha how finite souls bound in Samsara could easily reach Him. The Lord replied that remembering His name, offering flowers, and chanting His praise was sufficient. Bhu Devi took birth as Andal to personally demonstrate this easy path of surrender (Laghupaya) through the thirty verses of Thiruppavai.

Section 3: Literary, Preservation & Philosophical Contributions

- Complete List of Works:
 - Thiruppavai (30 Pasurams) – The crown jewel of Tamil devotional literature, sung daily in Margazhi.
 - Nachiyar Thirumozhi (143 Pasurams) – Highly emotional, poetic expression of bridal mysticism, including the famous wedding song Varanam Aayiram.
- Quantified Output: 173 Pasurams total.
- Associated Divya Desams (Mangalasasanam): Srivilliputhur, Sri Rangan, Thiruvengadam (Tirupati), Thirumaliruncholai (Kallazhagar), Ayodhya, Vrindavan.
- Sampradaya Defense & Preservation: Formulated the definitive model of Madhurya Bhava (Bridal Mysticism) within Viśiṣṭādvaita. Her Thiruppavai serves as a practical guide for daily morning prayer (Anusandhanam) across all Vaishnava households.
- Predominant Bhakti Bhava & Philosophical Core: Nayaki Bhava / Madhurya Bhava (Viewing the soul as the female bride and Narayana as the sole male groom). Her philosophy centers on Purushakara Prapatti and Kainkarya-Prarthana (praying exclusively for divine service).

Section 4: Representative Verses & Theological Breakdown

Verse 1: Thiruppavai, Pasuram 29 (Citram Sirukale)

Text Layer	Content
Original Script (Tamil)	சிறற்றஞ் சிறுகாலே வந்துன்னைச் சேவித்து உன் பொற்றாமரை அடியே போற்றும் பொருள்கேளாய் பெற்றம் மேய்த்து உண்ணும் குலத்தில் பிறந்து நீ குற்றேவல் எங்களைக் கொள்ளாமல் போகாது இற்றைப் பறை கொள்வான் அன்று காண் கோவிந்தா !

	எற்றைக்கும் ஏழேழ் பிறவிக்கும் உன்றன்னோடு உற்றோமே ஆவோம் உனக்கேநாம் ஆட்செய்வோம் மற்றைநம் காமங்கள் மாற்றேலோர் எம்பாவாய்
Roman Transliteration	Cittram sirukale vanthunnai sevithu un Potthamarai adiye potthum porul kelay Pettham meythu unnum kulathil piranthu nee Kuttreval engalaik kollamal pogadhu Itthraip parai kolvan andru kan Govinda! Ettraikkum ezhezhu piravikkum unrannodu Utthrome avom unakkenaam atcheyvom Matthrai nam kamangal matthrelor empavay
Literal Word-by-Word Meaning	Cittram sirukale: In the very early dawn; Vanthu: coming; Unnai sevithu: worshipping You; Un potthamarai adiye: Your golden lotus feet; Potthum porul kelay: hear the true purpose of our praise; Pettham meythu: grazing cows; Unnum: eating food; Kulathil piranthu: being born in our simple cowherd clan; Nee: You; Kuttreval: intimate personal service (Kainkaryam); Engalaik kollamal: without accepting from us; Pogadhu: cannot leave; Itthraip parai: temporary drum/reward for the vow; Kolvan andru kan: is not the real objective, see!; Govinda: Oh Lord Govinda!;

	Ettraikkum: For all time; Ezhezhu piravikkum: for seven times seven future births; Unrannodu: with You; Uththrome avom: we shall remain inextricably bound in relationship; Unakkenaam atcheyvom: we shall render service exclusively to You alone; Matthrai nam kamangal: all our other worldly desires; Matthru: eradicate completely!

Exhaustive Theological & Philosophical Commentary:

1. Esoteric Meaning (Swaroopā Jñanam): This penultimate verse of Thiruppavai reveals the inner core of the entire text. Andal clarifies that the outer pretext of the vow—obtaining a drum (Parai)—was just a ritual cover. The soul's true, ultimate prayer (Porul) is to serve Lord Govinda exclusively (Unakkenaam Atcheyvom) across all future births, while having all selfish, non-godly desires (Matthrai Kamangal) completely eradicated.
2. Viśiṣṭādvaita Alignment: Establishes Seshathvam (the soul's inherent property of belonging to God) and Ananya-Arha-Seshathvam (belonging only to God and no one else). The phrase Unakkene Atcheyvom ("We will serve only You") reflects the essential nature of Purushartha (the ultimate human goal).
3. Commentarial Insights: Periyavachan Pillai and Ramanuja held this verse in highest esteem. Ramanuja was so deeply moved by Thiruppavai that he was named Thiruppavai Jeeyar. The commentary notes that Ezhezhu Piravikkum ("Across 49 births") does not mean souls desire re-birth; rather, it emphasizes that even if rebirth occurs due to divine will, the relationship with Narayana remains unbroken and eternal.

Section 5: Visuals & Archival Resources

5.1 Iconography & Shrine Visual Description

- Physical Posture (Asana): Standing gracefully in a gentle three-bend posture (Tribhanga) or seated next to Lord Ranganatha/Vatapatrasayi.
- Hand Gestures (Mudras): Left arm resting gracefully at her side (Lola Hasta), right hand holding a fresh parrot (Kili) made of green leaves or a lotus flower.
- Garments & Embellishments: Dressed in exquisite bridal silk sarees, featuring her iconic side-tilted hair bun (Kondai) adorned with floral garlands, wearing traditional South Indian bridal jewelry and Urdhva Pundra.
- Avathara Sthalam Idol Description: At Srivilliputhur, Andal's Moolavar idol captivates pilgrims with her majestic yet gentle bridal posture, standing alongside Ranganannar (Lord Ranganatha) and Garuda.

3. THONDARADIPPODI AZHWAR

(Vipranarayanan, Thirumandangudi Avatharam, Bhaktanghri Renu, Garland Maker Saint)

Section 1: Identification & Incarnation Details

- Full Name & Titles: Thondaradippodi Azhwar (The saint who powdered the dust of the feet of God's devotees), Vipranarayanan, Bhaktanghri Renu, Mandangudi Piran.
- Incarnation Metadata:
 - Tamil Month (Maasam): Margazhi (Dhanur)
 - Birth Star (Nakshatram): Kettai (Jyeshtha)
 - Tithi & Paksham: Dvapara transition / Early Medieval Era; Krishna Paksha Chaturthi.
- Geographic Origins:
 - Historic Birthplace Name: Thirumandangudi
 - Current District & State: Thanjavur District, Tamil Nadu.
 - Associated Divya Desam / Temple: Ranganathaswamy Temple, Srirangam.
- Divine Lineage & Era:
 - Divine Amsam: Vijayanti (The celebrated long garland of fresh wildflowers worn by Sriman Narayana).
 - Historical Period: c. 8th–9th Century CE.
 - Sovereign & Scholarly Contemporaries: Devadasi Devadevi (Historical figure in his narrative), Chola King of Uraiyur/Srirangam.

Section 2: Complete Life History & Miracles

2.1 Chronological Life Timeline

- Vedic Birth & Garden Kainkaryam: Born in a pious Chola-country Brahmin family at Thirumandangudi, moving to Srirangam to cultivate a flower garden for Lord Ranganatha → Entrapment by Devadevi: Falling under the spell of the courtesan Devadevi through her pride and vow to break his ascetic austerity → Total Ruin & Expulsion: Spending all his wealth and being thrown out of her house when penniless → Intervention of Lord Ranganatha: The Lord assuming the form of Vipranarayanan's servant (Azhagan) and delivering a sacred golden vessel from the Srirangam temple to Devadevi → Royal Arrest & Imprisonment: Accused of stealing the temple's golden vessel and imprisoned by the King → Divine Vindication: Lord Ranganatha appearing in the King's dream to reveal Vipranarayanan's innocence → Repentance & Transformation: Taking the name Thondaradippodi, devoting his remaining life to absolute Bhagavata Kainkaryam → Composition of Thirumaalai & Thirupalliyezhuchi: Authoring forty-five verses of fierce devotion and ten awakening hymns → Attainment of Liberation: Merging into the eternal light of Lord Ranganatha.

2.2 Deep Biographical Narrative

- Early Years & Spiritual Awakening: Born under the name Vipranarayanan in Thirumandangudi, he was thoroughly educated in the Vedas. Desiring complete detachment from worldly affairs, he settled in Srirangam. Following the tradition of Periyalwar, he created a beautiful flower garden (Nandavanam) and spent his days weaving fresh garlands for Lord Ranganatha. He maintained strict celibacy (Brahmacharya) and avoided all secular temptations.
- Core Seva / Kainkaryam: Nandavana Kainkaryam (Garland service to Ranganatha) and Bhagavata-Thondu (Servitude to the dust of the feet of Lord Narayana's devotees).
- Miracles & Historical Events:
 1. The Entrapment by Devadevi: A beautiful courtesan named Devadevi passed by his garden. Annoyed that Vipranarayanan did not even raise his eyes to look at her beauty, she made a wager with her sister that she could break his celibacy and make him her slave. Disguising herself as a devout ascetic, she entered his service. Gradually winning his trust over months, she cast her romantic spell over him. Vipranarayanan became completely infatuated, abandoning his daily prayers and garden service to live at her house. Once his money was exhausted, Devadevi's mother threw him out into the streets.
 2. The Golden Vessel Miracle: Pitying His fallen devotee, Lord Ranganatha took the form of a young temple servant named Azhagan. He visited Devadevi's house at night, carrying a large golden vessel (Vattil) stolen from the Srirangam inner sanctum, presenting it to her as a gift from Vipranarayanan. Delighted by the gold, Devadevi welcomed Vipranarayanan back. The next morning, temple priests discovered the golden vessel missing. A search led to Devadevi's house, where Vipranarayanan was arrested for royal theft and cast into prison.
 3. Divine Vindication & Re-awakening: That night, Lord Ranganatha appeared in a dream to the Chola King, revealing that Vipranarayanan was completely innocent and that He Himself had orchestrated the event to free His devotee from illusion. Released from prison, Vipranarayanan was overwhelmed with repentance. Realizing the depth of God's unconditioned mercy (Nirupadhika Kripa), he wept, washed the feet of all Vaishnava devotees, consumed that holy water, and declared himself Thondaradippodi ("The dust of the feet of God's servants").
- Guru-Disciple Dynamics: Accepted Lord Ranganatha directly as his savior and Acharya, attributing his rescue from sin entirely to divine grace.
- Attainment of Paramapadam: Having authored Thirumaalai and Thirupalliyezhuchi, he spent his remaining years in complete, humble service at Srirangam before ascending to Paramapadam.

Sthala Puranam & Legend Highlight: The Power of Thirumaalai

Sri Vaishnava tradition states: "Thirumaalai Ariyadaar, Thirumalai Ariyadaar" ("One who does not know the hymn Thirumaalai, does not know Lord Narayana").

Thondaradippodi Azhwar's forty-five verses express an uncompromising, polemical defense of Ranganatha's supreme mercy, asserting that even the greatest sinner is saved the instant he utters the name of Narayana.

Section 3: Literary, Preservation & Philosophical Contributions

- Complete List of Works:
 - Thirumaalai (45 Pasurams) – A powerful, emotional hymn establishing the unparalleled sweetness of Lord Ranganatha's name and form.
 - Thirupalliyezhuchi (10 Pasurams) – The classic morning awakening song for Lord Ranganatha, sung daily in temples nationwide.
- Quantified Output: 55 Pasurams total.
- Associated Divya Desams (Mangalasasanam): Exclusively dedicated to Srirangam (Sri Ranganathaswamy Temple).
- Sampradaya Defense & Preservation: Formulated the liturgy for the morning awakening ritual (Suprabhatam/Thirupalliyezhuchi) in Vaishnava temples. He fiercely condemned non-Vedic sects and superficial ritualism.
- Predominant Bhakti Bhava & Philosophical Core: Bhagavata-Dasya / Dasa-Dasa-Bhava (Servitude to the servants of God) and Naichyanusandhanam (Deep personal humility and acknowledgment of one's own shortcomings).

Section 4: Representative Verses & Theological Breakdown

Roman Transliteration	Pachai mamalai pol meni pavalavay kamalaccengan Achutha amara ere ayartham kozhunthe ennum Ichuvai thavira yanpoy indhira lokam aalum Achuvai perinum venden Arangama

	nagarulane!
Literal Word-by-Word Meaning	Pachai mamalai pol: Resembling a huge emerald-green mountain; Meni: divine body; Pavalavay: coral-red lips; Kamala cchengan: red lotus-like eyes; Achutha: Oh infallible Lord Achytha!; Amarar ere: Oh King of the eternal gods!; Ayartham kozhunthe: Oh tender sprout/leader of the cowherds!; Ennum: thus praising; Ichuvai thavira: apart from this divine sweetness; Yan poy: I going; Indhira lokam aalum: ruling over the celestial realm of Lord Indra; Achuvai perinum: even if that alternative pleasure were granted; Venden: I do not desire it; Arangama nagarulane: Oh Lord residing in the great sacred city of Srirangam!

Exhaustive Theological & Philosophical Commentary:

1. Esoteric Meaning (Swaroopā Jnanam): Thondaradippodi Azhwar compares Lord Ranganatha's emerald-hued form (Pachai Mamalai) to the highest spiritual nectar. He forcefully declares that contemplating the physical beauty of Ranganatha at Srirangam is so profoundly intoxicating that even if he were offered sovereign rule over Indra's heavenly paradise (Indira Lokam), he would reject it without a second thought.
2. Viśiṣṭādvaita Alignment: Establishes Prathyaksha Anubhava-Rasatvam (the intrinsic experiential sweetness of Brahman). In Viśiṣṭādvaita, liberation (Mukthi) is not a void or absorption into featureless consciousness, but the active enjoyment of God's glorious attributes and form (Kalyana Guna and Divya Mangala Vighraha).
3. Commentarial Insights: Periyavachan Pillai notes that this verse proves that Srirangam on earth is superior to Sri Vaikuntham in heaven, because here the Lord exhibits His supreme accessibility (Saulabhya) while reclining on Adishesha, allowing finite sinners to gaze upon His coral lips and lotus eyes.

Section 5: Visuals & Archival Resources

5.1 Iconography & Shrine Visual Description

- Physical Posture (Asana): Standing in a posture of deep humility, holding a garden hoe (Kottu) and a flower basket (Poomudai) used for gathering blossoms.
- Hand Gestures (Mudras): Hands carrying garden implements or held in Anjali Mudra near his chest with a downward gaze reflecting deep repentance.
- Garments & Embellishments: Simple traditional Brahmin attire, marked with twelve prominent Urdhva Pundra (tilak) marks, adorned with a woven flower garland and Tulasi beads.

- Avathara Sthalam Idol Description: At Srirangam and Thirumandangudi, his Moolavar icon portrays him as the humble gardener saint whose life was transformed by Lord Ranganatha's unconditioned grace.

4. THIRUPPAAN AZHWAR

(Karthigai Rohini Avatharam, Paanar, Munivahana, Amalanadhipiran Kara)

Section 1: Identification & Incarnation Details

- Full Name & Titles: Thiruppaan Azhwar, Paanar (The Divine Bard), Munivahana (He who was carried upon the shoulders of Sage Lokasaranga Muni), Kavishwara, Amalanadhipiran-Kara.
- Incarnation Metadata:
 - Tamil Month (Maasam): Karthigai (Vrischika)
 - Birth Star (Nakshatram): Rohini
 - Tithi & Paksham: Early Medieval Era; Sukla Paksha Saptami.
- Geographic Origins:
 - Historic Birthplace Name: Uraiyr (Thiruuraiyr, ancient Chola capital, modern Tiruchirappalli)
 - Current District & State: Tiruchirappalli District, Tamil Nadu.
 - Associated Divya Desam / Temple: Sri Ranganathaswamy Temple, Srirangam & Azhagiya Manavalan Temple, Uraiyr.
- Divine Lineage & Era:
 - Divine Amsam: Srivatsa (The auspicious mark of divine golden hair residing eternally on Lord Narayana's chest).
 - Historical Period: c. 8th–9th Century CE.
 - Sovereign & Scholarly Contemporaries: Lokasaranga Muni (High Priest of Srirangam), Chola Rulers.

Section 2: Complete Life History & Miracles

2.1 Chronological Life Timeline

- Ayoni Discovery & Musician Lineage: Discovered as an infant in a paddy field at Uraiyr and raised by a pious family belonging to the musical Paanar community → Excluded Social Status & Distant Worship: Being barred from crossing the sacred Kaveri River into Srirangam due to caste norms, playing his Veena on the southern banks of the river while gazing toward the temple tower → The Stone Incident with Lokasaranga Muni: Lokasaranga Muni throwing a stone to move him out of the path, inadvertently striking Thiruppaan's forehead and causing it to bleed → Bleeding Deity Miracle: Lokasaranga entering the Srirangam sanctum to find Lord Ranganatha's icon bleeding from the exact same spot on the forehead → The Divine Command (Munivahana): Lord Ranganatha commanding Lokasaranga Muni to carry Thiruppaan into the sanctum upon his own shoulders → Composition of Amalanadhipiran: Singing ten immortal verses describing Lord Ranganatha's physical form from feet to crown (Padadi Kesham) → Physical Absorption into the Deity: Merging physically into the divine icon of Lord Ranganatha before all present.

2.2 Deep Biographical Narrative

- Early Years & Spiritual Awakening: Thiruppaan Azhwar manifested spontaneously in a rice field in Uraiyur, the ancient Chola capital. He was taken in and raised by childless parents belonging to the Paanar musician community. Inheriting an incredible mastery of music and stringed instruments (Veena), he dedicated his musical talent exclusively to praising Sriman Narayana.
- Core Seva / Kainkaryam: Veena Gana Kainkaryam (Musical devotion through stringed instrument) and Padadi-Kesha Dhyanam (Systematic contemplation of God's form from foot to head).
- Miracles & Historical Events:
 1. The Devotion at the Banks of Kaveri: Because social norms of the era prohibited members of the Paanar community from entering the holy temple town of Srirangam, Thiruppaan stood every day on the southern bank of the Kaveri River. Facing the direction of the Srirangam sanctum, he played his Veena in deep ecstasy, weeping tears of love for Lord Ranganatha.
 2. The Incident with Lokasaranga Muni: One morning, Lokasaranga Muni, the revered high priest of Srirangam, approached the river carrying sacred water (Theertham) for the Lord's morning bath. Seeing Thiruppaan lost in musical trance blocking the path, Lokasaranga called out to him. Absorbed in divine consciousness, Thiruppaan did not hear. To move him, Lokasaranga threw a small pebble toward him. The pebble struck Thiruppaan's forehead, causing blood to trickle down. Waking from his trance and realizing he had disrupted the high priest, Thiruppaan bowed humbly and withdrew.
 3. The Bleeding Sanctum & Munivahana: When Lokasaranga Muni entered the inner sanctum of Srirangam to perform the ritual bath, he was horrified to see blood trickling from the forehead of the main deity, Lord Ranganatha. Prostrating in agony, he prayed for forgiveness. Lord Ranganatha spoke from the icon: "You threw a stone at My pure devotee Thiruppaan, who lives on the riverbank. His pain is My pain. If you wish to atone for your sin, carry him into My sanctum upon your own shoulders!"
 4. The Singing of Amalanadhipiran & Absorption: Overwhelmed by remorse, Lokasaranga Muni rushed to the riverbank, explained the Lord's decree, and despite Thiruppaan's humble protests, hoisted the saint onto his shoulders. Carried into the inner sanctum as Munivahana ("He whose vehicle was a sage"), Thiruppaan opened his eyes and beheld the transcendent form of Lord Ranganatha reclining on Adishesha. Out of his mouth poured ten immortal verses—Amalanadhipiran—describing the beauty of the Lord's feet, garments, navel, chest, neck, lips, eyes, and crown. Concluding the tenth verse with the declaration "My eyes that have seen my Lord Ranganatha will see nothing else!", he stepped forward and absorbed physically into the deity of Lord Ranganatha.

- Guru-Disciple Dynamics: Honored by Lokasaranga Muni as an exalted spiritual master; accepted Lord Ranganatha directly as his ultimate goal and refuge.
- Attainment of Paramapadam: Merged physically into the Moolavar icon of Lord Ranganatha in Srirangam, leaving behind ten verses that capture the essence of divine beauty.

💡 Sthala Puranam & Legend Highlight: The Meaning of Munivahana & Universal Equality

The miracle of Thiruppaan Azhwar being carried on the shoulders of the high priest Lokasaranga Muni is the ultimate Sri Vaishnava refutation of caste-based discrimination. It established the core Viśiṣṭādvaita doctrine that a true devotee of God (Bhagavata), regardless of birth, is worthy of highest worship even by the most exalted scholars.

Section 3: Literary, Preservation & Philosophical Contributions

- Complete List of Works:
 - Amalanadhipiran (10 Pasurams) – A masterpiece of Tamil poetry describing Lord Ranganatha's divine form from foot to head (Padadi Kesham).
- Quantified Output: 10 Pasurams total.
- Associated Divya Desams (Mangalasasanam): Srirangam (Sri Ranganathaswamy Temple) & Uraiyur.
- Sampradaya Defense & Preservation: Formulated the primary Sri Vaishnava meditation text for visual contemplation (Divya Mangala Vighraha Dhyanam). Vedanta Desika honored this work by writing a comprehensive commentary titled Munivahana Bhogham.
- Predominant Bhakti Bhava & Philosophical Core: Divya Mangala Vighraha Anubhava (Intense aesthetic and spiritual absorption in God's physical beauty). His work demonstrates Ananya-Drishtitvam (singleness of vision).

Section 4: Representative Verses & Theological Breakdown

Verse 1: Amalanadhipiran, Pasuram 10 (Kondal Vannanaik Konda)

Text Layer	Content
Original Script (Tamil)	கொண்டல் வண்ணனைக் கோவலனாய் வெண்ணெய் உண்ட வாயன் என் உள்ளம் கவர்ந்தானை அண்டர் கோன் அணி அரங்கன் என் அழுதினைக்

	கண்ட கண்கள் மற்றொன்றினைக் காணாவே !
Roman Transliteration	Kondal vannanaik kovalanay venney Unda vayan en ullam kavarthanai Andar kon ani Arangan en amudhinai Kanda kangal mattrondrinaik kanave!
Literal Word-by-Word Meaning	Kondal vannanai: He who possesses the blue hue of a rain-bearing water cloud; Kovalanay: who manifested as a simple cowherd (Krishna); Venney unda vayan: possessing the mouth that ate stolen butter; En ullam kavarthanai: who stole my heart away completely; Andar kon: the Sovereign Lord of the celestial gods; Ani Arangan: Lord Ranganatha residing in beautiful Srirangam; En amudhinai: my sweet immortal nectar; Kanda kangal: my eyes which have beheld Him; Mattrondrinai: any other material or spiritual object; Kanave: shall never, ever see again!

Exhaustive Theological & Philosophical Commentary:

1. Esoteric Meaning (Swaroopā Jñanam): The climax of Thiruppaan Azhwar's life and work. Having contemplated every limb of Lord Ranganatha from His lotus feet to His radiant crown, the saint declares that his physical and spiritual vision is permanently saturated. His eyes, having drunk the nectar of Ranganatha (En Amudhinai), possess no remaining capacity or desire to look at anything else in creation.
2. Viśiṣṭādvaita Alignment: Represents Svarūpa-Siddhi (the final realization of the soul's nature). When the soul experiences the Supreme Brahman (Niratisaya Ananda), all lesser material attractions (Prakṛiti-Guṇa) instantly evaporate.
3. Commentarial Insights: Vedanta Desika in Munivahana Bhogham notes that this verse represents the absolute terminal point of Bhakti-Yoga. The moment Thiruppaan uttered the word Kanave ("Shall never see"), his physical body dissolved into the divine light of Ranganatha, proving that direct experience of God (Darsana) leads to immediate liberation (Mukthi).

Section 5: Visuals & Archival Resources

5.1 Iconography & Shrine Visual Description

- Physical Posture (Asana): Standing in Anjali Mudra or holding a Veena across his chest, often depicted seated upon the shoulders of Lokasaranga Muni.
- Hand Gestures (Mudras): Hands playing the strings of a Veena or joined in tears of devotion (Anjali Mudra).
- Garments & Embellishments: Dressed in simple cotton garments, wearing Urdhva Pundra (tilak) marks, adorned with a fresh Tulasi bead necklace.
- Avathara Sthalam Idol Description: At Srirangam and Uraiyyur, Thiruppaan Azhwar's Moolavar shrine depicts him in ecstatic adoration, reflecting his eternal oneness with Lord Ranganatha.

5. THIRUMANGAI AZHWAR

(Kaliyan, Parakalan, Thirumangai Mannan, Arattamukki, Aalivallanal, Mangaiyarkon)

Section 1: Identification & Incarnation Details

- Full Name & Titles: Thirumangai Azhwar, Kaliyan (The Strong/Victorious One), Parakalan (Death to rival philosophers/opponents), Thirumangai Mannan (King of Thirumangai), Arattamukki, Aalivallanal, Mangaiyarkon, Nalkavaperumal.
- Incarnation Metadata:
 - Tamil Month (Maasam): Karthigai (Vrischika)
 - Birth Star (Nakshatram): Krithigai
 - Tithi & Paksham: Early Medieval Era; Sukla Paksha Purnima.
- Geographic Origins:
 - Historic Birthplace Name: Thirukuraiyalur
 - Current District & State: Mayiladuthurai District, Tamil Nadu.
 - Associated Divya Desam / Temple: Thirukuraiyalur, Thirunangur Tirupathis (11 Shrines), Srirangam, Thiruvengadam.
- Divine Lineage & Era:
 - Divine Amsam: Sharanga (The invincible Divine Bow of Sriman Narayana).
 - Historical Period: Late Chola/Pallava era (c. 8th Century CE).
 - Sovereign & Scholarly Contemporaries: Kumudavalli Nachiyar (His wife and spiritual catalyst), Thirugnana Sambandar (Famous Shaivite saint with whom he debated), Pallava

King Nandivarman II.

Section 2: Complete Life History & Miracles

2.1 Chronological Life Timeline

- Chieftain Birth & Royal Career: Born as Neelan to a Kallar chieftain family at Thirukuraiyalur, rising to become a military general and King of Thirumangai under the Chola empire → Encounter with Kumudavalli: Falling in love with Kumudavalli Nachiyar, who set two non-negotiable marriage conditions: becoming an initiated Vaishnava (Pancha Samskaram) and feeding 1008 Vaishnavas daily for a year → Highway Robbery for Kainkaryam: Running out of royal funds, turning into a highway robber to rob the rich to continue feeding devotees → The Robbery of the Divine Couple: Intercepting a newlywed couple in the forest of Thirunamamangai, who were Srīman Narayana and Lakshmi in disguise → The Ashtakshara Mantra Initiation: Being unable to lift the bundle of stolen jewels, Lord Narayana leaning down and whispering the sacred Om Namō Narayanaya mantra into his right ear → Transformation into Kaliyan: Outpouring of Periya Thirumozhi starting with Vaadinen Vaadi → Temple Architecture & Nagapattinam Gold Robbery: Stealing the golden Buddha statue at Nagapattinam to construct the outer defensive walls (Thiruchutru) of Srirangam → Ascension: Merging into the divine realm at Thirukkurungudi.

2.2 Deep Biographical Narrative

- Early Years & Spiritual Awakening: Born as Neelan in Thirukuraiyalur, he was a warrior of exceptional physical strength and military intellect. He rose to become a commander in the Chola army and was rewarded with governance over the region of Thirumangai, earning the title Thirumangai Mannan. He lived a life of royal luxury, martial glory, and sensory enjoyment.
- Core Seva / Kainkaryam: Kshethra-Atanam (Mapping and glorifying 86 Divya Desams), Alaya-Nirmanam (Building massive temple fortresses like the Srirangam enclosure walls), and Literary Defense of Viśiṣṭādvaita.
- Miracles & Historical Events:
 1. The Vows of Kumudavalli: Neelan fell in love with Kumudavalli, a physician's adopted daughter who was a devout Vaishnava. She agreed to marry him only on two conditions: he must undergo formal Sri Vaishnava initiation (Pancha Samskaram) from an Acharya, and he must feed 1,000 Vaishnava devotees (Tadiyaradhana) every single day for a full year. Neelan happily accepted, spending his royal treasury to fulfill her wish.
 2. Highway Robbery & The Sacred Initiation: When royal taxes went unpaid due to funding Tadiyaradhana, the Chola king imprisoned Neelan. After paying his debts through hidden treasure revealed by Varadaraja Perumal, Neelan took to highway robbery with four trusted companions to continue feeding devotees. One night, a wealthy newlywed couple walked through the forest of Thirunamamangai wearing dazzling jewels. Neelan ambushed them, stripped their ornaments, and tied them in a bundle. However, when he tried to lift the bundle, it was miraculously glued to the earth. Drawing his sword, Neelan demanded to know what magic spell (Mantra) the groom had cast. The groom—who was Lord Narayana Himself—smiled and said, "Come closer, I will teach you the mantra."

Leaning down, the Lord whispered the sacred eight-syllabled Ashtakshara Mantra (Om Namo Narayanaya) into Neelan's right ear. Instantly, all material delusion vanished. Neelan dropped his sword, fell at the Lord's feet, and transformed into the great saint Thirumangaiazhwar.

3. The Robbery of Nagapattinam Buddha: To construct the vast outer rampart walls of the Srirangam temple, Thirumangai needed vast wealth. He sailed to Nagapattinam, outwitted the guardians of a Buddhist monastery, stole a solid gold statue of Buddha, melted it down, and used the gold exclusively to pay laborers for building the Srirangam temple walls.
4. Debate with Thirugnana Sambandar: At Sirkazhi, Thirumangai met the famed Shaivite child-saint Thirugnana Sambandar. Challenged to a poetic contest, Thirumangai sang his verse Oru Kuralay Iru Sudaray. Astounded by Thirumangai's poetic genius and Vedantic depth, Sambandar conceded defeat and gifted his personal trident (Vel) to Thirumangai.
- Guru-Disciple Dynamics: Initiated into Pancha Samskaram by Thirukannapuram Acharya; received direct Mantra-Upadesha from Sriman Narayana Himself.
- Attainment of Paramapadam: Spent his final years performing intense kainkaryam at Thirukkurungudi (Nambi Temple), where he eventually absorbed into the deity.

💡 Sthala Puranam & Legend Highlight: The Six Angas of Dravida Veda

While Nammalwar's four works are revered as the four Dravida Vedas, Thirumangai Azhwar's six works (Periya Thirumozhi, Thirukurunthandagam, Thirunedunthandagam, Tiruvezhukurrirukkai, Siriya Thirumadal, Periya Thirumadal) are designated as the Vedangas (six auxiliary limbs) of the Tamil Veda.

Section 3: Literary, Preservation & Philosophical Contributions

- Complete List of Works:
 - Periya Thirumozhi (1084 Pasurams) – Extensive hymn glorifying 86 shrines.
 - Thirukurunthandagam (20 Pasurams) & Thirunedunthandagam (30 Pasurams) – Metrical masterpieces establishing monotheism.
 - Tiruvezhukurrirukkai (1 Pasuram) – Unique chariot-shaped poetic design (Ratha Bandham).
 - Siriya Thirumadal (77.5 lines) & Periya Thirumadal (148 lines) – Poetic adaptations of classical Madal literature to express desperate surrender.
- Quantified Output: 1361 Pasurams total across six works.
- Associated Divya Desams (Mangalasasanam): Mapped and glorified 86 Divya Desams across India (more than any other Azhwar), including Srirangam, Tirupati, Badrinath, Naimisharanya, Kanchipuram, Thirunangur, Thirukannapuram, and Thirukkurungudi.
- Sampradaya Defense & Preservation: Built physical temple fortifications at Srirangam, instituted the annual Adhyayana Uthsavam (recitation festival of Divya Prabandham alongside Vedas at Srirangam), and defended Viśiṣṭādvaita against rival philosophies.
- Predominant Bhakti Bhava & Philosophical Core: Parakala Nayaki Bhava (Bridal longing characterized by bold, fearless pursuit of God) and Ashtakshara-Mahima (Glory of the Holy Name).

Section 4: Representative Verses & Theological Breakdown

Verse 1: Periya Thirumozhi, Decad 1.1, Pasuram 1 (Vaadinen Vaadi)

Text Layer	Content
Original Script (Tamil)	வாடினேன் வாடி வருந்தினேன் மனத்தால் பெருந்துய ரிடும்பையிற் பிறந்து கூடினேன் கூடியிள மென் முலையாரோடு அவர்தரு சுகமே என்று இருந்தேன் தேடினேன் தேடித் திருவடைந்தேன் நின்றிரு வடியடை உய்வான் நாடினேன் நாடி நான் கண்டுகொண்டேன் நாராயணா என்னும் நாமமே !
Roman Transliteration	Vaadinen vaadi varundhinen manatthalam Perunthuya ridumbaiyir piranthu Koodinen koodiyila men mulaiyarodu Avartharu sugame endru irundhen Thedinen thedit thiruvadainthen Nintiru vadiyadai uyvan Nadinen nadi nan kandu konden Narayana ennum naamame!
Literal Word-by-Word Meaning	Vaadinen vaadi: I withered and withered in distress; Varundhinen manatthalam: I grieved deeply in my mind; Perunthuya ridumbaiyir piranthu: being born in this birth of immense sorrow and affliction; Koodinen koodi: I indulged and united; Ila men mulaiyarodu: with young women; Avartharu sugame endru irundhen: believing that sensory pleasure offered by them was the highest happiness; Thedinen thedi: I searched and searched relentlessly; Thiru vadainthen: and attained the divine grace of Lakshmi; Nintiru vadiyadai uyvan: seeking to reach Your sacred lotus feet for my soul's salvation; Nadinen nadi: I sought with intense yearning; Nan kandu konden: and I have discovered; Narayana ennum naamame: the supreme divine Name called 'Narayana'!

Exhaustive Theological & Philosophical Commentary:

- Esoteric Meaning (Swaroopā Jñanam): Thirumangai Azhwar outlines his spiritual transformation. He confesses his past life of worldly indulgence and sensory distraction. Through divine intervention, after endless searching for true peace, he discovered the ultimate secret for universal salvation: the sacred eight-syllabled name Narayana.
- Viśiṣṭādvaita Alignment: Establishes Nama-Sāṅkīrtanam and Tirumantra-Prabhavatvam (The supreme power of the Ashtakshara Mantra). In Viśiṣṭādvaita, the divine Name is non-different from the Lord Himself (Namī), acting as the most accessible vehicle for Prapatti.
- Commentarial Insights: Periyavachan Pillai in his commentary notes that this verse mirrors the human condition in Samsara. The word Kandu Konden ("I have discovered") expresses the immense joy of a starving man finding a feast. The Name Narayana erases all past Karmic sins and instantly qualifies the soul for eternal grace.

Section 5: Visuals & Archival Resources

5.1 Iconography & Shrine Visual Description

- Physical Posture (Asana): Standing in a heroic, martial posture (Veera Sthanakam) holding his royal sword (Khadga), shield (Khetaka), and spear/trident (Vel).
- Hand Gestures (Mudras): Right hand holding a drawn sword or spear, left hand holding a shield or resting on his hip in a monarchical pose (Katyavalambita).
- Garments & Embellishments: Dressed as a warrior-king with a royal turban/crown, wearing chest armor over Urdhva Pundra (tilak) marks, adorned with warrior anklets (Veera Kazhal) and Tulasi garlands.

- Avathara Sthalam Idol Description: At Thirukuraiyalur and Srirangam, Thirumangai Azhwar's Moolavar icon presents a striking image of military majesty transformed by spiritual devotion, standing beside Kumudavalli Nachiyar.
